MISSION

Inspiring people with practical solutions for positive change

CLIENTS

Healthcare clients appreciate her unique talent for challenging the minds and touching the hearts of people at any level within a company, from the board of directors to the front-line staff. She has guided over 50 hospitals through the Service Excellence Initiative, earning the "Impact to Business" from the ASTD-Iowa Chapter for the work she completed at Matagorda Regional Medical Center. In addition, one of her current clients, Memorial Hospital in Carthage, IL has earned and retained the CMS – 5 Star status for the past three years.

ABOUT ME

Michele managed her own training and consulting business in Des Moines, Iowa, called Inspiring Solutions for 30 years before selling it to JER HR Group. She is an award-winning facilitator of Everything DiSC and Five Behaviors of a Cohesive Team.

She earned the Certified Speaking Professional from the National Speakers Association, a designation earned by fewer than 10% of professional speakers worldwide.

Michele is known as "The Attitude Adjuster" because she has written several books and training resources on the topic, including the best-selling book Attitude: The Choice is Yours.
